To Whom It May Concern,

I'm Mansi Sakle, Founder and CEO of MEENATLIVES.COM — a digital movement that empowers voices, elevates brands, and curates modern online presence. MEENATLIVES blends purpose with aesthetics to craft brands that connect and inspire.

Our blog section includes four pillars: digital marketing strategies, The Shadow Algorithm — a deep dive into marketing psychology, academia, and a lifestyle blog sharing personal takes on fitness, fashion, and more. Every article fuels the MEENATLIVES vision: to help people and brands rise with clarity, style, and authenticity.

Our services focus on content creation, social media strategy, and branding. From Instagram content and reels to tweets and full branding plans, every piece is crafted to reflect your identity and potential.

My skills include Canva, Adobe Suite, Generative AI, Make.com, and Notion — merging strong design with smart systems. I've led campaigns across industries, grounded in compelling content and data-driven results.

Thank you for your time. I'd love to collaborate or contribute to projects rooted in creativity, innovation, and growth. Let MEENATLIVES lift your brand, your voice, and your story.

Regards,

Mansi Sakle
